

community

JOSH DOOLEY/THE BAXTER BULLETIN

The North Central Board of REALTORS collected $8,000 through its 21st annual Feed Our Children project and provided 57,829 pounds of food Friday morning to the Food Bank of North Central Arkansas. That food will be used to provide 48,191 meals to a total of 22 food pantries, shelters and holiday distribution sites across Baxter, Marion and Izard counties.

NCBR provides over 48,000 meals

SUBMITTED REPORT

The North Central Board of REALTORS collected $8,000 through its 21st annual Feed Our Children project and provided 57,829 pounds of food Friday morning to the Food Bank of North Central Arkansas.

That food will be used to provide 48,191 meals to a total of 22 food pantries, shelters and holiday distribution sites across Baxter, Marion and Izard counties.

For 21 years the North Central Board of REALTORS has made hunger relief a top priority with our annual Feed Our Children project and this year is no different, according event organizers.

"The REALTORS in our community are a constant source of support for the Food Bank and the hunger relief organizations we serve," said Food Bank Executive Director Jeff Quick. "With such a long-standing history of support, our agencies have come to depend on the generosity of the REALTORS and their affiliate members during the holidays."

Over 12,000 Baxter, Marion and Izard county residents are considered

"food insecure" it is an honor to serve alongside of each of you volunteers as we endeavor to create communities without hunger, organizers said.

The NCBR thanks Hobby Lobby for the use of their parking lot, Jackson Rentals for the use of a forklift and to all the REALTORS and Affiliates who showed up to load the groceries.